LANSING, OWOSSO IN FLAG PROGRAM

Dr. William Heilman of Shiawassee City Urges Real Patriotism.

By Earle R. Pitt.
(Staff Correspondent.)

OWOSSO, June 15.—"If our venerated George Washington should return to his country now, the only familiar object would be the American flag. Even the number of stars in the flag has increased," observed Dr. William Heilman, of the Owosso Episcopal church, Wednesday, when he spoke to a joint gathering of Owosso and Lansing Elks who met in the Owosso Elks' home to observe Flag day.

The flag ceremonies were simple in the extreme. The history of the American flag was read to perpetuate the story. Several musical numbers, the singing of national hymns and the address by Dr. Heilman, completed the program.

Dr. Heilman, in a brief but genuinely patriotic address, related the high lights of our 150 years of national history. He pointed out the continuous changes both in industrial and inventive progress and the changes in our social relations and laws.

"Even the constitution so familiar to Washington has changed," said Dr. Heilman. Dr. Heilman declared that genuine reverence was due the flag because it stood for so many of the ideals of good citizenship. "Yet there are those who come to this country to better their condition," continued Dr. Heilman, in part, "and who have lived under a hard regime in their own lands, who immediately take it upon themselves to criticize and change the things the flag stands for."

Dr. Heilman maintained that unless we exactly knew what the American flag stands for, its history and its true meaning, why, and not how it should be saluted, all our forms and customs relative to flag usages, were but mockery.

"Learn what the flag should be saluted. Learn what it stands for, then flag usages will mean something. The salute will be prompted from within by the spirit of patriotic understanding and will not be a mere form."

SAY OWOSSO MAN
WROTE BAD CHECKS

D. Portogel, Owner of Army Store, Said to Have Issued Worthless Checks.

OWOSSO, June 16.—D. Portogel, owner of the army store in Owosso, and who operates similar stores in other cities of the state is under arrest at Midland for passing worthless checks upon M. N. Posner retail merchant with headquarters in Saginaw.

Posner who sold Portogel a large order of goods was given a check May 20 for $342.95 in full payment of the order. However, upon cashing it, the check was returned marked no funds.

He at once notified Portogel and after a couple weeks received a check for $350, June 6, which Owosso authorities believe was raised several dollars because of interest, and to make himself good.

Posner attempting to cash this check also found it worthless, and turned them both over to the Owosso authorities.

Portogel who was in Owosso Thursday was arrested and arraigned before Justice Day, and was told to appear in court Friday morning.

He, however, left for Midland, Friday morning, saying that he would stop off in Saginaw and make good the money to Posner.

By Portogel failing to appear in justice court at the given time, authorities soon learned of his departure through employees of the store.

The book pushmobile contained in the store was taken to the police park by a 2 to 3 score.

Although only a few hills was made off of either pitcher, the loose playing soon enlarged the score.

OWOSSO WOMAN JUDGED SANE BY PHYSICIANS

OWOSSO, June 16.—Mrs. Gertrude Goff, 618 N. Hickory, who was adjudged sane by a trio of doctors several months ago after neighbors complained to authorities of her using indecent language to them for no reason whatever, pleaded guilty before Justice Day Saturday to a similar charge lodged against her by neighbors this week.

Neighbors testify that many times while they are in their own yards, Mrs. Goff will come out and call them vile names and order them in their homes.

Many times it is impossible to sleep nights declared one, because of her raving and carrying on during the night.

Upon her plea of guilty being entered, she was placed on one year probation, and upon the entry of the next complaint she will be arrested and examined again. Then sent to the asylum at Pontiac.

Neighbors during Friday night or early Saturday morning thieves broke into the Owosso Outfitting Co.'s store, taking two flashlights, a gold fountain pen and $2.50 in silver.

It is the belief of the police that the thieves gained access to the buildings by climbing an adjoining sign board and entered the building through a broken window.

By the looks of the job it indicates the work of kids.

Lee Retan, department adjutant of the state organizations of Spanish War Veterans, and local adjutant of the G. M. Hunt camp, No. 35, at Owosso, expressed hopes of having a large turn out at the annual state reunion of Spanish War Veterans in Detroit the 14th, 15th and 16th of this month.

LIGHTNING STRIKES 3 OWOSSO PEOPLE

All of Victims Were Rendered Unconscious But Are Now Recovering.

OWOSSO, June 16.—During the heavy electrical storm that accompanied the rain Friday evening, several persons about the city were momentarily stunned with lightning.

Mrs. Charles Lahman, who was sitting upon the porch of her home, was struck when she arose from her chair to enter the house. Her husband who was in the rear of the house at the time, heard the fall and rushed to the front where he found Mrs. Lahman lying upon the floor in an unconscious condition.

A doctor was quickly summoned and soon after she regained consciousness but was unable to speak for three hours afterwards. She was reported to be in bed Saturday but not in danger.

Another victim of the storm was Mrs. Mary Card, age 75, living with her daughter, Mrs. James Lundy of Huggins st.

Mrs. Card, who was sitting upon the porch during the storm, was struck and also momentarily stunned by a bolt of lightning.

Her nephew, who was sitting upon a nearby porch, also felt the same bolt in his left arm, and paralyzed it for a short time only. The bolt itself struck full force in the adjoining back yard.

He afterwards looked over to where his grandmother was sitting and as she was seemingly in the same position thought little more of it.

However, upon his mother, Mrs. Lundy, Mrs. Card's daughter, coming to the porch where her mother was sitting, found her in an unconscious condition.

She was quickly restored to consciousness only to sink into oblivion once more, but later was restored to consciousness and although confined to her bed Saturday morning, she was reported on the road to recovery.

When the aged lady was found it was first thought she was dead, but a message was sent to her son so stating.

Upon Denyes and his companion missing the grip they retraced the road at once, but were informed by two gentlemen who witnessed the bag fall from the machine, that a lady driving a Ford truck and accompanied by a small child, picked the bag up from the road and got away before they could reach her from the porch where they were sitting. However, they secured the truck's license number, 271,861, and gave it to young Denyes, who reported it to the police of that city, and an arrest is expected to be made soon.

Over $100 worth of clothing and other articles were in the bag when lost.

THE TRUTH WILL ALWAYS COME OUT NO MATTER WHAT IS DONE

TOWNSEND NO BETTER THAN KELLEY

Declaring that Representative Patrick H. Kelley not only voted for Senator Truman H. Newberry in the 1918 general election, but was extremely friendly toward him during more than three years that elapsed before he himself became a senatorial candidate, and extremely solicitous that he be seated by the senate, managers of the campaign to re-elect Senator Charles E. Townsend exploded a bomb under the Kelley campaign Thursday.

Republicans generally in Michigan accepted the revelation of Kelley's right-about-face in his attitude toward the Newberry election as a vital inconsistency in his campaign. If Kelley has been correctly quoted in declaring that he voted for Newberry, Republicans declare it will be hard for him to convince Michigan voters that he is no holier politically than Senator Townsend who voted to seat a colleague the Lansing statesman helped elect. Assertions by Republican leaders that Kelley was one of the first to congratulate Senator Newberry on his being seated by the senate and that during the senate's trial of the election case, he inquired sympathetically as to the progress made and expressed the hope that the junior senator be seated, are not likely to increase Kelley's reputation for consistency, if they are maintained.

"After the Republican primary of 1918, which resulted in the nomination of Senator Newberry, Congressman Kelley publicly endorsed the candidacy of Mr. Newberry in speeches made during the campaign.

"In November, 1918, by his own admission, Kelley voted for Newberry.

"During last December and January, when the Newberry case was being debated in the senate, on three separate occasions, Kelley visited Senator Townsend's office in Washington and in the most sympathetic and solicitous manner possible, inquired as to the probable determination of the case and expressed the hopeful desire that the junior senator from Michigan would be seated.

"I am reliably informed that among the many hundreds who extended their congratulations to Senator Newberry when he was seated, January 12, 1922, was none other than Congressman Kelley.

"It will be remembered that a few weeks after the decision of the senate to seat Newberry, Kelley came to Michigan and announced his candidacy in opposition to Senator Townsend on an anti-Newberry platform.

"Now, what the people of Michigan wish to know is what happened during those intervening weeks to change Kelley's attitude. Had Senator Townsend voted against the seating of his colleague, there are many who believe that Kelley would now be running for the senate just the same, only on a different platform, campaigning up and down the state of Michigan and denouncing opponents for not having the courage and manhood to defend and uphold the good name of the state, when it was slandered on the floor of the senate by the Democrats of the south, where they have not had an honest election since the Civil war.

"The people of Michigan will not forget the inconsistency of Kelley when they vote in the Republican primary on September 12. Above all things they admire a man who has the courage of his convictions and who reaches his conclusions honestly. When it comes to choosing a United States senator, they seek ability, experience and fitness to serve the public well.

"Mr. Kelley voted to send Senator Newberry to the United States senate. Senator Townsend voted to seat in the United States senate the man Mr. Kelley helped to elect.

"Even today, although he is running for the senate on an anti-Newberry platform, Kelley indorses the election of Senator Newberry in 1918, in his interview when he says:

"The Republicans of Michigan had no other course open to them at the November election in 1918 (than to vote for Truman H. Newberry), unless they were willing, as a protest, to turn over one of the senatorships from the overwhelmingly Republican state of Michigan to the minority party for a full term of six years and this I would not vote to do. As it turned out, such action on the part of Michigan Republicans would have resulted in the continuation of Democratic control of the United States senate for two additional years."

"No doubt Congressman Kelley had in mind that it was Newberry's vote that made possible the reorganization of the senate by the Republicans in the spring of 1919, and paved the way for the final defeat of international document that purposed forever to involve the United States in all the old world controversies and jealousies and bequeath to our posterity an unbearable military burden for all."

It has come to a time when the farmers and laborers must stand back to back and throw off the yoke of Financial Bloc, Big Interest Bloc and send a man to congress who will live up to the standards of justice for all.

In Herbert F. Baker, a man who has lived on the farm all his life, we have a man of the right calibre to stand for the right of the laborer. His election will help the land slide that surely is coming when justice will be tempered with equality.
